ABOUT THE IBC

The International Bankers Club Luxembourg ("IBC") was founded in 1972 on the initiative of the then honorary president, Mr. Constant Franssens, Managing Director of Kredietbank S.A. Luxembourggeoise.

The IBC, established over 50 years ago, initially served under the ABBL (The Luxembourg Bankers' Association, established in 1939), to bring together the management of Banks and Financial Institutions established in Luxembourg, to foster and develop a platform for open and informal dialog between their key executives.

The IBC branched out of the ABBL in 2016 to continue to serve its growing IBC membership - on its own, as an "Association de Fait" (a non-for profit organisation) - as a distinct community, moving onwards and upwards with an evolving membership since.

The IBC regularly organises meetings, events and get-togethers on professional, cultural, and social subjects, year on year on, having built yearly traditional events programme over the years.

Our members are all senior executives, experienced professionals who hold or have held senior executive positions - at least C- level – across Global financial services institutions, located in Luxembourg.

The intent and commitment of the IBC Luxembourg is to:

- Continue to bring value to our distinct members with a dedicated platform and endeavours that connect and bring together leading senior executives of the Luxembourg financial centre.
- Share activities through our recognised yearly IBC events alongside providing interesting subject matters with leading industry figures in regular get-togethers, be their physical or virtual.

On a yearly basis, IBC regularly organises meetings, events and get-togethers on professional, cultural and social subjects, year on year on, having built a traditional events programme over the years.

Our members are all senior executive professionals, supporting organisations across the Financial Industry, as a whole. Who hold or have held senior executive positions - at least C- level - representing local and global financial institutions, located in Luxembourg,
